Program Description

The Teacher of Students with Moderate Disabilities program prepares graduates to be caring and competent special education teachers and leaders with the essential and critical skills to make the general education curriculum accessible to all students, especially those with moderate disabilities. Graduates are also prepared to become highly motivated educators who are practitioners of educational innovation. The program meets the regulations for licensure of Teacher of Students with Moderate Disabilities PreK-8 or 5-12. Program completers are career-ready, technologically savvy, exhibit intercultural competence and are equipped to advance social justice.

Learning Outcomes

- Create specialized instruction to effectively support students with moderate disabilities using evidence-based practices.
- Demonstrate an understanding of special education laws, policies, and individualized education planning.
- Understand advanced knowledge of instructional techniques, behavior management strategies, and assessment tools tailored for students with disabilities.
- Create and implement individualized education plans to effectively collaborate with multidisciplinary teams and adapt curriculum to meet diverse learning needs.
- Apply inclusive and culturally responsive teaching practices to support students with disabilities in a variety of educational settings.

Careers

Students who complete this program are eligible to be special educators in grades PreK-8 or 5-12 as a co-teacher, consulting teacher or teacher of record in resource room settings.

Please note: The non-licensure Teacher of Students with Moderate Disabilities (PreK-8 or 5-12) Master of Education program is also offered fully online through Cambridge College Global. See Teacher of Students with Moderate Disabilities on page 339 for details.
